

A New Fight

1 Samuel 17

- I. Overcoming the giants in our day.
 - A. Realizing what is at stake.
 1. There is a battle being waged.
 2. The battle lines have been drawn.
 3. They have champions on their side.
 4. They are taunting their message.
 - B. Realizing our response to the challenge.
 1. They all ran in great fear.
 2. This happened for 40 days.
 3. No one had the courage to take him on.
 4. The rewards didn't even persuade them.
 - C. Realizing what is needed to win.
 1. An anointed man who cares for what God cares about.
 2. A people who realize that we fight from victory.
 3. A people who realize that small things can bring down giants.
 4. A people who realize that God is on our side.
 - D. Taking your personal stand in the fight.
 1. Where are you in this battle?
 2. What cause are you fighting for?
 3. What gets you fired up?
 4. What are you willing to give your life for?

"Let no one lose heart on account of this Philistine; your servant will go and fight him." (17:32)
